IF Conference Focus
The purpose of the annual IF Conference is to create an intellectual platform for information practices, and to create an interdisciplinary conversation on the ever-changing role of technology mediated information on society.

It is intended as a place for critical engagement, examination and discussion of ideas that connect information to their contexts in the world – on research and development, in classrooms, in the arts, in libraries, on the streets and in communities.

Proposal Submission Requirements
The Information Fluency Conference committee invites you to submit proposals for the annual conference to be held at the University of Central Florida in Orlando, on February 26 & 27. Below you will find information on submitting a conference proposal. Additional information may be found at www.ce.ucf.edu/if

Title of Presentation: A clear and descriptive title of your work. Limit of 100 characters.

Abstract (max 300 words): A concise description of the purpose, methods, and implications of your scholarly work, as well as an explanation of how your presentation reflects the conference theme, “The Age of New Media: Literacy in the 21st Century.”

Presentation Type: Individual Presentation, Panel Presentation, Roundtable Discussion, or Poster Session. Please see the next page for a full description of presentation types.

Conference Tracks: Select the conference track most applicable to your work.

1. Visual Representation: Understanding and Questioning the Image
2. New Media Convergence: Where Theory meets Practice
3. Thinking Critically and Creatively: Communication and Technology
4. The Global Classroom: Challenges of New Media Literacies
5. Digital Leadership: The 21st Century Library

Equipment: Each room will include a projector equipped with a universal VGA cable to accommodate both PC and MAC platforms, an Internet connection, and a projection screen. Presenters must provide their own computer or other specialized equipment.

Biographical Information: name, organization or institution, position or title within the organization/institution, highest degree earned, address, telephone and email.
Deadlines

All proposals due to IF Office: | November 24, 2013
Notification of Acceptance or Rejection: | December 13, 2013
Confirmation of Participation by Presenter: | January 10, 2014

Presentation Types and Descriptions

Individual Presentation
A 45 minute presentation in which you share information related to one of the components of Information Fluency based on the conference theme. Each presentation should allow a minimum of 15 minutes for discussion and Q&A with the audience.

Panel Presentation
A 90 minute presentation by four or more presenters on a single topic viewed from multiple perspectives. Each presentation should allow a minimum of 30 minutes for discussion and Q&A with the audience.

Roundtable Discussion
A 60 minute facilitated discussion on a topic related to Information Fluency. Roundtable discussions should be interactive and participatory. The discussion should be focused around the current conference theme.

Poster Session
Poster presentations provide the opportunity for you to expand your audience and interact individually with interested viewers. A poster can be used to share the main points of your research results, and how it relates to Information Fluency and the current conference theme. The conference will provide a display board for your poster.

Registration Fees

Registration fee includes access to all presentations, keynote speech, concurrent sessions, poster presentations, reception, coffee breaks & snacks and all materials.
